

CALL FOR PARTICIPATION

2009 Meeting
of the Missouri Folklore Society
“River Rambling, Games, & Gambling”
November 5-7, 2009
Boonville, Missouri

Due Date: September 20

Mail to:
2009 MFS Program
Brett Rogers
1136 7th Street, Boonville, MO 65233

Questions? Email: brogers@williamwoods.edu

Both individual and complete session proposals are welcomed.
Proposals may be for Single Paper, Full Session and/or Panel Discussion.

The purpose of the MFS Society is to encourage the collection, preservation, and study of folklore in the widest sense, including customs, institutions, beliefs, signs, legends, language, literature, musical arts, and folk arts and crafts of all ethnic groups throughout the State of Missouri.

Submission Process

1. Complete this form for session proposals or to volunteer.
2. For session proposals, also complete the form specific to the session format: single paper, full session, or panel discussion. Provide complete information as illustrated in the sample format(s).
3. Mail to the address above or submit electronically.
4. Contact Brett Rogers with any questions at brogers@williamwoods.edu

All Individual Paper Proposals should include the title of the presentation and a brief abstract. Proposals for Full Sessions and Panels should include titles of individual papers, abstracts, and suggested title for the Session. Session proposals should also include a proposed session chair. Ideally, chairs should not also be a presenter in the same session. See Full Session and Panel Discussion forms. Presentation times are 20 minutes for each presenter with time available for question and answer after all presentations have been made. Participants will supply any audio visual equipment necessary for presentation(s).

Please complete page two of this form.
